June 2018 Public Works Activities

During the month of June, Public Works worked on the following activities:

1. Public Works removed a tree limb blow down during a storm in the 5200 block of Quincy Street.
2. The Town will be receiving three Duo Big Belly units this month. Public Works has already installed the concrete pads.
3. We also assisted Chief Stone with installing the July 6th event banners throughout the Town.
4. The Public Works crew is aware of the high volume of graffiti throughout the Town our Public and is working hard to remove it as it appears.
5. Public Works painted yellow curbs in the 5000 block of Upshur Street due to visibility.
6. Due to several Cars/ Bus stops being vandalized we have had to remove glass out of the roadways throughout the Town.
7. As part of our commitment to beautifying the community, we have been busy planting flowers and installing mulch at Town Hall.
8. Public Works delivered two trash cans to two new residents who recently moved in to the Town of Bladensburg. Welcome to the wonderful Town of Bladensburg we C.A.R.E
