Community Policing Information and Upcoming Events

Two of our staff members were recently certified to install child safety seats in vehicles (many parents are well aware that it's not quite as easy as it looks). The service was offered at the recent Cinco de Mayo event. To schedule an appointment for this service please e-mail carseatcheck@bladensburgmd.gov or call 301-864-6080.

On April 1st members of the Bladensburg Police Explorers visited the Prince George's County Department of Corrections in Upper Marlboro. The Explorers met with correctional officers and other staff members and learned of the many aspects of operating a detention facility from providing security to providing meals to health care, educational services and much more. The Explorers met with members of their special services teams including an officer from their K-9 unit.

On April 20th we held an Eggtravagaza at the David C. Harrington Community Park. The afternoon was filled with fun and games including an Easter Egg hunt, egg toss, sack race and face painting. We had popcorn, ice cream and other refreshments. Many thanks to our Police Explorers, elected officials and other volunteers who helped to make the event a success.

On April 30th Councilwoman Carletta Lundy and Capt. Collington attended the National Honor Society Induction Ceremony at the International High School at Langley Park (located in Bladensburg).

Congratulations to all of the inductees!
